

GIVING SMALL BUSINESS A BIG SAY

– be part of the change

Response Sheet

The “Giving Small Business a Big Say” booklet sets out some of the issues that the Small Business Commissioner is interested in hearing about from you. The questions are a guide to help you think about examples in your own business – feel free to provide some comments in relation to just some or all of these themes in the space provided below.

You can communicate with the Small Business Commissioner informally by sending an email, letter or fax.

» Let's talk about what's happening in your business – what are the 3 most critical issues impeding your business productivity and growth?
» How can the NSW Government help your business grow?
» Tell me about local councils and the planning system
» What issues do you have with rented premises?
» Let me know about your interaction with small business programs in the past
» When should Government get out of the way, and let you do what you do best?

»» Gathering the information you need to run your business	..... ..... ..... .....
»» At the end of the road... Thinking about your exit strategy	..... ..... ..... .....

About you

It is helpful if you provide contact details so I can follow up if I need further information to sort out your issue and keep you informed as I make progress in the NSW business environment. All details of individuals will be held confidentially.
