

NSW Small Business Commission CALD Toolkit

Mandarin

How to use this toolkit

The toolkit contains information and easy to share resources including:

- Social content (tile and video clip) with link to translated webpage and campaign hashtag
- Suggested text for newsletters and social media, which can be easily copied and pasted

Social media

Do you run a small business in NSW? The NSW Small Business Commission provides services that can help, including: free guidance, low cost dispute resolution and one-on-one assistance.

Call us on 1300 795 534 or visit

bit.ly/sbssptMandarin

#smallbusinessCALDSupport

Newsletter article

Support for your small business

The NSW Small Business Commission can assist you to overcome the challenges you may face when doing business.

In particular, the Commission can provide your small business with:

- Free guidance and information, including guidance about issues with your commercial or retail lease
- Low-cost dispute resolution, including resolving disputes with other businesses, your landlord or tenant
- One-on-one help with business challenges.

For help, call us on 1300 795 534 or visit www.smallbusiness.nsw.gov.au

If you need an interpreter, call us and we will organise one for you.

This communication toolkit was produced by the NSW Small Business Commissioner, 4 Parramatta Square, 12 Darcy Street, Parramatta NSW 2150.

We welcome your toolkit feedback and enquiries via our email address: strategicprojects@smallbusiness.nsw.gov.au
Any other small business enquires should be submitted via our enquiry form.